

YOLO COUNTY

NeighborhoodCourt

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE FOR A BETTER COMMUNITY

A Division of the District Attorney

Woodland Neighborhood Court Seeks Community Volunteers!

Neighborhood Court uses the principles of restorative justice to resolve low-level offenses outside of the traditional criminal justice system. Volunteers have the opportunity to work with fellow citizens to address harms caused by crime, hold offenders accountable, identify solutions to help offenders avoid repeating the same mistakes, and help the victim, community, and offender move forward in a positive direction.

Informational Meeting*

Thursday, August 20, 2015

6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Woodland Police Department • Public Safety Room
1000 Lincoln Ave., Woodland, CA

*Attend to learn more about the program, ask questions, and talk with Neighborhood Court team members. Volunteer applications will be available to complete and submit in person.

Community Panelist Training

Saturday, August 29, 2015

8:45 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Department of Employment and Social Services
25 N. Cottonwood Ave., Woodland, CA

To Learn More About Neighborhood Court, visit: yoloda.org/nc

Volunteer applications are available online.

Submit an application to attend the August 29th training or a future training session.

For additional information:

Email: NeighborhoodCourt@yolocounty.org or Call: 530.681.6323 or 530.666.8378