Sacramento Man Sentenced to Prison for Human Trafficking and Pimping Minors in Yolo County

(Woodland, CA) – November 23, 2021 – On November 22, 2021, 35-year-old Jasyn Bigasan-Carter of Sacramento was sentenced to 29 years and 4 months in state prison for sex trafficking a minor, pimping a minor, felon in possession of a firearm, and dissuading a witness.

The case stemmed from an arrest in April 2020, when West Sacramento Police responded to a domestic violence call at a motel on West Capitol Avenue. They contacted the first victim, a female who had recently turned 18 years old, and learned that she had been trafficked by Mr. Bigasan-Carter for the last two months. West Sacramento Police Detectives immediately opened an investigation and discovered a second minor female victim who lived out of county. The lengthy investigation that followed, which was aided by Yolo County District Attorney Investigators, revealed that Mr. Bigasan-Carter had been involved in human trafficking since January 2020.

Under the terms of the plea agreement, Mr. Bigasan-Carter will be required to register as a sex offender for life after his prison sentence is concluded.
