Two More Individuals Charged with New Felonies After Being Released as a Result of California Judicial Council's Statewide Emergency "0" Bail Schedule

(Woodland, CA) – May 21, 2020 – This past week, two more individuals previously released from custody as a result of California Judicial Council's Statewide Emergency "0" Bail Schedule were charged with new crimes. The "0" Bail Schedule became effective April 13, 2020, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Woodland man, Humberto Tejeda, age 31, has been charged with multiple felonies by the Yolo County District Attorney's Office after being arrested by Woodland Police on May 18, 2020. Tejeda had been previously arrested on May 1, 2020, for burglary and was released as a result of California Judicial Council's Statewide Emergency "0" Bail Schedule. On April 2, 2020, Tejeda was granted an early release from custody where he was serving a county prison sentence for auto theft as part of the efforts to decrease the jail population to mitigate the transmission and spread of COVID in the jail. Following the May 18 arrest, Tejeda was arraigned on May 20, 2020, on two separate complaints in Department 1 of the Yolo County Superior Court. The first complaint alleged violations of looting, burglary, and conspiracy stemming from a May 1, 2020 incident. The second complaint alleged assault with a deadly weapon and battery causing serious bodily injury from May 10, 2020. He was also arraigned on two violations of post release community supervision and two probation violations. He is currently being held on $35,000 bail after pleading not guilty. He will next appear in Department 7 of the Yolo County Superior Court on June 2, 2020, for a preliminary hearing.

Woodland Man, Chedepo Teh, age 22, has been charged with multiple felonies after being arrested on May 13, 2020 for burglary, and then released on May 14, 2020. He was also released as a result of California Judicial Council's Statewide Emergency "0" bail Schedule. Teh was again arrested on May 15, 2020 for residential burglary which was one of the exceptions allowing for the setting of bail.

Teh was arraigned on May 19, 2020, in the Yolo County Superior Court on a complaint alleging looting, second degree burglary, and first degree burglary. Teh remains in custody on $25,000. He entered a not guilty plea and his next court date is May 21, 2020, in Department 1 of the Yolo County Superior Court for a bail reduction or own recognizance hearing.

Presently, the Yolo County jail is well below capacity and there have been no COVID cases.
